ROOSEVELT IS CHARGED WITH MISREPRESENTATION

Former President Comes Back Promptly and Says His Position Is Made Plain.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 7.—Shortly after Colonel Roosevelt arrived here today and before he sat down to breakfast at the Hotel Pfister, he found himself involved in a controversy with Emil Seidel, the Socialist mayor, who had declined to act on the reception committee which welcomed the colonel to Milwaukee.

In a contribution to the Big Stick, a newspaper published by the Milwaukee Press club for this occasion, Mayor Seidel stated, "If Roosevelt comes to Milwaukee holding the same ideas that he has expressed in his magazine article of March 20, 1909, it is clear that he cannot serve the cause of honesty and decency in American political life."

"It is possible that I misunderstood the article," said Mr. Seidel, "but, inasmuch as I am a Socialist and he has designated socialism as a thing which is against morals and religion, I cannot see how he can be a Socialist and at the same time a state founding asylum—I am sure that he will be pleased that I am not personally connected with his reception to the city."

Makes Serious Charge.

Charging the colonel with a "cunning and deliberate purpose to create a false impression," he declared that the visitor "could lay no claim to the right of preaching either morality, religion or civic righteousness."

"In the speaking tour of Mr. Roosevelt through the west," said the mayor, "I fail to see anything of importance beyond political plans and designs. As such, of course, it is of no special service to the present city administration. The problems that now confront our city are of much the same nature as those of the nation."

On being shown the statement, Colonel Roosevelt promptly said:

"On this trip I have made no partisan political speeches, and of course shall not break through the rule now in effect by discussing either state party measures or municipal party matters. At present, of course, the dominant municipal party in Milwaukee is the Socialist party. If any one wishes to know my views on what is usually called socialism, they will find them set forth in such fashion that it is impossible to misinterpret them, or misunderstand them, in the magazine articles to which the mayor in his letter refers, and I advise them to read the articles themselves and not what the mayor says of them."

Paper Dodges Some.

The Press club's special publication, "The Big Stick," especially disavowed responsibility for the statement, and, in fact, saying that "Mr. Roosevelt will understand that Milwaukee's welcome is none the less wholehearted—hardly the less unanimous—because the mayor has seen fit to voice a socialistic dislike for the former head of the nation."

In spite of the statement, Mayor Seidel, the Press club had prepared a most strenuous program, including half a dozen speeches between breakfast and luncheon time.

Realizing that this program was impossible of execution, they cut it down so that the morning hours were to include only visits to the boys' and girls' trade schools, the colonel making it plain before he started to inspect them that his visit would be purely one of education for himself and not to teach those conducting the schools anything about their work.

Stands by La Follette.

"It has been stated to me since my arrival here," said Colonel Roosevelt today, "that in spite of Senator La Follette's having carried the primaries in a fair contest, an effort will be made to beat him in the legislative election. I do not for one moment believe this, because any such conduct would be from every point of view an outrage that would be a deliberate violation of good faith."

"When in Oregon the Democratic candidate for senator, Governor Chamberlain, carried the primaries and was defeated in the election, I was very strongly and publicly took the position that such an act would be one of bad faith by the legislature toward the people and I take the same position in regard to Senator La Follette."

PROMINENT MAN DIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT

BINGHAM, Me., Sept. 7.—Pinned beneath the wreckage of a big touring car when it turned turtle at the foot of a steep hill, former Congressman George W. Raymond of Fair Haven, Mass., prominent business circles, was instantly killed.

Raymond was driving with a woman, who was not injured, when the car, which was a 1909 model, was struck by a large truck. The car was traveling at a high speed and the driver, Raymond, was unable to stop in time. The wreckage was found about a mile from the town of Bingham.

demands his prompt removal from said office. "He further resolved, 'That a report to the congress be prepared setting forth the grounds and reasons as shown by the evidence for the removal of Mr. Ballinger from office, including other matters referred to this committee, and that the same be submitted to this committee on Friday next at 10 o'clock a. m.'"

Madison Substitute. Mr. Madison offered the following substitute: "Resolved, That the findings of the committee be as follows, and a report thereon be prepared and reported to congress: 'First, that the charges made by L. R. Glavis against Secretary Ballinger be sustained; that in the matter of the disposition of the Cunningham coal lands Mr. Ballinger was not a faithful trustee of the interests of the people and did not perform his duty in such a manner as to properly protect such interests.'

Second, that the charges made by Mr. Pinchot should be sustained; that Mr. Ballinger's course in the administration of the department of the interior has been characterized by a lack of fidelity to the public interests; that this has been shown in his treatment of the Cunningham coal lands, the restoration of water power sites to entry without intention to withdraw, and in his administration of the reclamation fund, the latter resulting in unnecessary humiliation to the director and tending toward the disintegration of the service. He has not shown himself to be that character of friend to the policy of conservation of our national resources that we have a right to expect in a man in that position of trust and confidence in our government, and that he should no longer be retained in that office."

Ask for Publicity.

This motion and substitute were laid aside and the following resolution offered by Mr. Madison: "Resolved, That it is the sense of those present that the committee be requested to make public the substance of the report made by the committee on the adjournment of the committee, made public."

James offered the following amendment: "That it is the sense of those present that a report be made by the committee on the questions submitted by the resolution under which we are acting."

In favor: Senators Fletcher and Purcell and Representatives Madison, James and Graham—total 5.

Sutherland Doesn't Vote.

In view of the absence of Messrs. Olmstead and Fletcher, Senator Sutherland and Representative McCall declined to vote, stating that they did not wish to be taken into consideration by the committee.

In view of the importance of the investigation, the Republican members felt in view of the fact that Mr. Denby and Mr. Olmstead were absent, that an adjournment should be taken until next Friday to give them an opportunity to be here.
